“AWANA” comes from 2 Timothy 2:15, which says Approved Workmen Are Not Ashamed.

“I can't wait for Awana to start again. My favorite parts of Awana are playing games, watching the puppet shows and having snack.”

- Emily Redelman, Awana Clubber, age 5

“I'm a youth pastor because of Awana. I was invited to an Awana program when I was in second grade and trusted Christ as a result. The rest is history.”

- Joey Woestman, Awana alumni and Pastor of Student Ministry

Weekly Experiences

Council Time

Kids and leaders gather together for singing, announcements, awards presentations and, most importantly, a practical Bible message.

Handbook Time

Kids work one-on-one with a trained leader to complete assignments in their handbook and recite Bible verses. Awana emphasizes memorizing and understanding key verses that teach children how to know and follow God. A series of awards and trophies rewards their achievement at every level.

Game Time

Team competition takes place in our unique circle games and during other playground favorites. The Awana game circle provides maximum opportunity for children to get involved, no matter what their athletic ability. They unleash their energy while learning teamwork, sportsmanship and other character traits through their participation.

About Awana

A kids' ministry without fun is a ministry without kids. That's why Awana takes fun "seriously." Our club meetings are so exciting that kids can't wait to come back for more!

But fun is only the start. While kids are having a blast, they're learning and growing, too. They participate in games and activities that train their bodies. They learn verses and spiritual truths that expand their minds. They encounter life lessons that feed their souls. With caring, trained leaders investing time, love and wisdom into shaping children's lives, parents quickly discover that Awana is a fun approach to the serious calling of discipling kids.

To Register

We'd love for you to register by the end of August, but you can sign up any time during the year. Simply go to FaithLiveItOut.org and sign up on the Children's page.
