

Wednesday Morning Studies

9:15-11 am

Train Up A Mom ::Led by Brenda Soderstrom

This study aims to encourage moms to walk intimately with God while raising children. As we dig in to Scripture together, we'll be challenged to study our kids, pray for them, claim promises for them, surrender them, and ultimately reflect the Lord to them. Cost $8

Women Who Mattered to God

::Led by Scotia McClung & Mechelle Rescorla

This is a study of Old Testament women who found strength in God's care. The purpose of this study is to uncover the heart of God in the stories of Old Testament women. We will learn His heart as we see what concerns Him and moves Him to action. Cost: $5

Beautiful Feet ::Led by Rebecca Redelman

We know sharing the good news of Christ isn't optional, but is it happening in your life? Scripture, mentors, and DVDs will guide us in exploring fresh, contemporary ways to invite friends on a spiritual journey toward meeting and following Christ.

Cost: Participant's Guide $3 (optional book $6)

Beloved Disciple by Beth Moore ::Led by Jeanne Blahnik

The study takes an in-depth look at the disciple John's heart. As we learn more about

John's journey with Jesus, we'll allow it to deepen our walk with Christ.

This study will use

a workbook, class

videos, and small group discussion.

(Continuation of study from the fall)

Cost: $15
